

Quality, Security, Safety, Occupation Health, Environment, and Business Continuity Statement

The QSHEB Policy and this QSHEB statement apply to all GGC businesses and operations across the supply chains. GGC promotes the adoption of QSHEB policy and statement by suppliers, contractors, and other key business partners (e.g., non-managed operations, joint venture partners, licensees, outsourcing partners). All GGC in management levels are responsible to implement suitably and accordingly to company's objectives and targets. Moreover, all GGC in management levels are also accountable to be role models to maintain and improve of QSHEB management systems with adequate resources provided to ensure employees participation and implementation, including widely communicate of QSHEB performance throughout the organization.

Therefore, Global Green Chemicals Public Company Limited (GGC) commits to be a Leading Chemical Company for Better Living with innovation and continuously improves Quality, Security, Safety, Occupational Health, Environment, and Business Continuity (QSHEB) effectiveness as the following:

1. Comply with quality, security, safety, occupational health, environment, and business continuity laws and regulations as well as related standards and other requirements. Additionally, regular assessments will be conducted to identify areas for improvement beyond what is specified in related standards and other requirements.
2. Set measurable Quality, Security, Safety, Occupational Health, and Environments Impact with key performance indicators and targets
3. Implement risk management to prevent hazards, work-related illness, losses caused by accident, injuries, and property damages
4. Evaluate, manage and control top priority issues of Quality, Security, Safety, Occupational Health, Environment and Business Continuity in operations, towards development and implementation of the effective action plans.
5. Implement total quality management together with environmental management system in accordance with Quality, Security, Safety, Occupational Health, Environment and Business Continuity in order to prioritize and set up action plans and deliver continuous improvement of Occupational Health and Safety and Environmental Performance
6. Protect the environment, prevent pollution and biodiversity by focusing on improvement and prevention at source, including resources consumption efficiency. And strengthen environmental culture by disseminating and supporting employees and stakeholders in order to increase their awareness and participation on our environmental culture.

7. Exercise due care in occupational health and work-place environment and promoting a good health, happy workplace and work-life balance.
8. Contribute constructive trainings in environmental impacts for all levels of employees and workers by work-related activities.
9. Set measurement to raise Occupational Health and Safety programs as well as Environment management and Environmental impact awareness through participation within internal and external stakeholders and/or representatives along to the collection of incidents, audits, reviews, and feedbacks.
10. To prevent environmental impacts from climate change, GGC must monitor and assess greenhouse gas emissions while developing methods to reduce them. This includes adopting low-carbon technologies, utilizing renewable energy, and avoiding investments in fossil fuel expansion. The goal is to maintain efficiency in reducing greenhouse gases and to improve adaptation to climate change, with the aim of achieving net zero emissions by 2050. Additionally, GGC will work to raise awareness among employees and stakeholders about the importance of climate change, fostering a culture that supports the company's environmental initiatives.